

Internship Opportunities

Ello. Hey. Yo. Welcome.

You've found us! We're The Basement, an award-winning ad agency, located in the heart of downtown Indianapolis. Chances are you might've even seen us around town – our clients span from Indy to international waters!

We're not really looking to host interns who bring coffee (although, we'll take it), scribble notes (doodles preferred), or who are only to be seen and not heard (speak up). We're searching for a group of creative minds that are ready to explore the world of advertising, and itchin' to get their chops (look it up). So, you interested? Ready to join the crazy?

Program Highlights

Basics Bootcamp

Learn about different agency roles.

Career Development

Numerous feedback opportunities.

Digital Experience

Contribute to real client work.

FAQs

How many hours will I be required to work?

10-20 hrs/week for the fall and spring. And 20-30 hrs/ week for the summer.

Is this only for potential interns in the creative department?

Nah, all problem solvers, strategic thinkers, and business-minded individuals are encouraged to apply. No prior advertising experience needed.

Are internships paid?

You bet, The Basement will pay an hourly rate for all internships. Oh, and all the snacks you can eat.

Who can apply?

Our program is available to students who have finished at least their sophomore year in college, including recent graduates. And we're open to anyone that's out of school, searching for a career change or completing a master's program.

Can I earn college credit for my internship?

Definitely, we'll work with any intern(s) who are earning credit and need specific forms filled out or requirements met during their internship.

Additional FAQs →

www.thebsmnt.com/internships

Additional FAQs

FAQs

How many interns will you host per semester?

Interns are the bee's knees, but we only hire on a need-basis! Usually, we'll have between 1-3 interns.

Does The Basement provide housing?

We don't, but we can assist you in finding apartments close to our office.

Where's The Basement located?

We're in Union Station, located on Meridian St. in downtown Indianapolis.

How's the hiring process work?

You'll apply via Indeed. Then, we'll check out your application and notify you.

What are the normal office hours?

Our office is open Monday-Friday from 9a-5p. We'll work with you and find a schedule that's best for the both of us.

www.thebsmnt.com/internships

